

UPDATE

16th January 2025

As announced, the three sister unions BFFS, GDBA and VdO negotiated with the Deutscher Bühnenverein in Leipzig on January 15 and 16 for improved working conditions on German stages.

Deutscher Bühnenverein has made decisive progress on the central demands for more relief and predictability.

We were also able to make progress in the area of the contracts for SR BT, although we are still far apart on key points.

The progress is due to the fact that the members of the BFFS and GDBA have shown a willingness to strike.

The artists' unions will not be striking tomorrow

Now it depends on the next negotiation dates on February 18/19 in Hamburg. We expect to resolve all outstanding issues at the negotiating table in the next round.

Please stay prepared and be aware that BFFS and GDBA may have to call warning strikes in February. We will keep you up to date.
